

KINESTHETIC MODELING (KM)

Kinesthetic Modeling Workshop San Francisco, March 20, 2010

ON JANUARY 27, 2010 BY ADMIN

Learn to use KM in your practice. This workshop is geared to facilitators, coaches, and consultants. In one day you will experience the process, learn what makes it tick and become familiar with how to facilitate KM with your clients. Julie Gieseke, a Bay Area coach and facilitator is presenting with me. She’s an experienced KM user and teacher. The session is graphically facilitated. You will receive copies of all photos, session graphics and the latest version of the “KM Facilitator’s Guide. It will be held in San Francisco or Sausalito. The fee is $250. Attendance is limited to 20 participants.
